

Journeyman course registration

There are two methods to register for a Journeyman level class:

Either method will require you to fill out a Santa Ana Canyon college application form as well as the Journeyman course registration form:

These forms are available under the "registration form" hyperlink.

1. Register in person at the Training Center:

Orange County Electrical JATC Training Center
717 S. Lyon St.
Santa Ana, CA 92705
(714) 245-9988

2. Go to the registration form link on the first page of this website, print out both of the registration forms, fill them out completely and mail them to the above address.

If you are mailing the forms in, please call the training center to confirm registration.

Registration is on a first come-first served basis, we cannot guarantee you a seat in any class. You must register after the registration start date which is located on the course description page. Registration start dates are approximately two (2) weeks prior to the start of the class. No registrations will be accepted before the registration start date.

Fees, deposits and book prices are posted if applicable and are the most current prices at the time of the course posting. Prices are subject to change without notice. Call the Training Center for the most current prices. (714) 245-9988

All registrants must be members in good standing of the I.B.E.W. Local 441 or the Orange County Chapter of N.E.C.A. Proof is required on the registration form.

Continuing Education students: A course completion letter is available for hours attended after the course has ended. These letters will be mailed to you according to the address you provided on the registration form and after confirmation of required documentation (Santa Ana Canyon College application form) and hours attended are verified.

We will not be responsible for records of course completion after the close of any course. We will not submit proof of course hours or completion to the state or any other organization on your behalf.

It is the sole responsibility of the attendee of any course to retain their course records or completion documentation.
